entitled to 3 month privilege leave on half pay under art 185 (b) of the C S R
3 Because Mr Reddy's deputation abroad prevented him from utilizing the 3 months vacation of 1913 it seems that he is entitled to one months privilege leave on full pay under art 188 of the C S R
4 Point is, Sec 84 A of the British Civil Service Regulation time spent out of India does not count for leave without the special sanction of the local Govt to the contrary and Mr Reddy seems to have been informed of this on a reference made by him to the Comptr's office Br II may be consulted on the matter
5 Mr Reddy also enquires whether he should report himself for duty in the Secrett under the recent G O

I met Mr Reddy recently & discussed these matters with him. He has employed one stenographer typist & is arranging to get a second man. He said that he found it impossible to get men who owned typewriting machines & that machines could be hired only on a hire of 3 to 10 Rs per day. He has already bought one machine for Rs 360 odd & is in need of another. He wishes Govt to pay for them or at least for one of them & grant a loan for the other which he will buy only for his own pocket afterwards keep for his own use.

Since the hire for 4 months is likely to come to 2 or 3 hundred rupees it is probably best for Govt

The Govt Secr may be asked if a tent could be spared for 2 or 3 months

It will be understood that the present statement is both experimental & hypothetical. It may be that my work will take less time or more, but given efficient clerks every inch of the time taken would be laid out to the best advantage. If I have to do the reading & thinking properly, I must be relieved of a great part of the mechanical drudgery of writing & fair copying. Two Stenographer-typists are absolutely essential to secure full economy.

As yet I have not been able to secure even the one clerk authorised.

Dear Sir,

As no shorthand-typists that I know of keep machines of their own, I request that sanction may be speedily accorded for the purchase of two typing machines for the use of this office

I have at my own expense purchased a machine already for the use of the clerk engaged, at a total cost of Rs 362/- I shall be obliged if this sum is remitted to me at your earliest convenience

I shall order another machine in anticipation of sanction for the use of the second clerk whom I have been permitted to engage, and as it is not very convenient for me to advance money, I must trouble you to be so kind as to send another Rs 362/- for the purchase of the second machine

Dear Sir

When a few days I had with the Short-hand typist that I have engaged on your authorization I am in a position to say definitely that a single clerk is not at all sufficient for the heavy work at this office He is a willing hand & probably not below the average, but being rather poor in general education he has extra to type twice or decipher his short-hand ~~before~~ prior to commencing typing before a clean copy can be obtained I found that he takes the rest of the day to manage material dictated to him on an hour and a half or so I therefore feel obliged to urge the immediate appointment-
